COMM3501 - Multimedia Storytelling

Course Description

Writers who can write effectively for electronic media will be tomorrow's success stories. New organizations, publishers, and commercial businesses are seeking writers steeped in new media, especially those who can write for the web. In this project-based course, students will master writings for podcasts, audio slideshows and videos. In addition, they will sharpen their journalistic skills (through regular blogging, for example), and build a professional portfolio that will assist them in finding work in the media business.
